The EDMONTON LETTER

By T. B. Windsor

Edmonton, July 11th.—The Alberta government suffered two serious setbacks in its legislative policy during the past week. Most serious of these was the side-tracking of the much vaunted bill to grant a charter for a provincial bank to the government. Parliament at Ottawa, assisted by the Social Credit members themselves, talked the measure out of the house where it must remain for the term of this session. It is thought, but the interesting thing is that the attempt to get a bank charter granted into law when the decision on the government's appeal on the Alberta Debt Adjustment act was turned down, was a judgment on the part of Mr. Justice Ford. The appeal was brought from a judgment of Mr. Justice Irving who held that the section of the act dealing with negotiable papers was outside the powers of the Alberta legislature. The act was attacked in an action heard in Calgary last November when the Atlas Lumber Company Ltd sought a permit under terms of the act to collect a promissory note for $1000. G.C. Whistler, The trial judge ruled that the company could proceed with its action for the collection of its money without a permit from the debt adjustment board. This ruling was upheld by the court of appeal.

Observers are remarking that it is just one more illustration of the amiable ill-conceived and ill-considered legislation put on the statutes by the Alberta government. The Social Credit government is either overruling its legal advisers or forming legislation, or else it is being advised by inexperienced and amateur lawyers in the opinion of a large section of the public. Observers say this explains the many ultra vires acts passed by Premier Aberhart's administration. Other observers point to the fact that this was a reserved victory by the time limit on debate.

In introducing the bill, J. H. Blackmore, New Democracy leader, of Lethbridge, went over the whole of Alberta's government record of alleged successes under Premier Aberhart's leadership.

No mention was made in the province's claim of the fact that the Alberta government had neglected or refused outright to consider any plan for compromise on its debt proposed by bondholders or other financial interests involved.

The main objection of the bill applying for a bank charter for Alberta on the part of the Dominion government was that it was to be a charter permitting privileges outside the provisions of the federal banking act.

Colonel Ralston objected that the bill proposed to "make parliament, in effect a rubber stamp for the provincial government in council of Alberta in that the members of the executive council are to be directors of the bank".

The bank act requires that the selection of the directors and officers of a bank must be made on the ground of specific qualifications.

The second step received by the announcement was made in stressing the fact that the shipments over the line covering a period of 20 years should be taken rather than shipments in recent years when plagues of rust, drought and grasshoppers visited the districts. In addition to the loss of farmers, there would be large numbers of persons thrown out of work in the abandoned towns and villages, coupled with loss of investment by persons owning property at these points.

LINE ELEVATORS OPPOSE SCRAPPING RAILWAY LINES

The railways do not propose to compensate farmers or business places for the loss of investment by persons owning property at these points.

SACRED HEART PARISH SUMMER SCHOOL

About thirty children of the Strathmore district availed themselves of the opportunity to attend the religious vacation school conducted by Sisters more by two Sisters of Providence from Cluny during the week July 10 to 17th. The children attended Mass at nine o'clock each morning, after which they were in school all day until four o'clock when they returned to church for Benediction. A new feature of the school this year which was greatly enjoyed by all the students was the picture shows shown by the Sisters. At the conclusion of the week's instruction, Saturday noon each child received a gift from the Sisters some religious article, a prayer book, a medal or rosary. The school was conducted this year by the same Sisters as last year, Reverend Sister Edward and Reverend Sister Margaret.

They arrived via the newly opened Columbia field highway yesterday, and while most of the party departed for their homes Monday afternoon, many of them will linger here for a few days vacation.

Every section of Canada is represented in the party, including A. I. Barrett, of Newfoundland. The visitors are thrilled with Canada's latest scenic mountain highway and term it one of the greatest tourist attractions in the Dominion. CHRISTIAN SCIENCE
"Sacrament" is the subject of the Lesson-Sermon at all Christian Science Churches on Sunday. The Golden Text is John 4:22. One of the Scriptural citations is "And the angel answered and said unto the women, Fear not ye; for I know that ye seek Jesus, which was crucified. He is not here; for he is risen, as he said" (Matthew 28:5,6). One of the correlative passages from "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy, is "The resurrection of the great demonstrator of God's power was the proof of his final triumph over body and matter and gave full evidence of divine Science,—evidence so important to mortals." There is a pleasure in the pathless woods,
There is a rapture on the lonely shore,
There is society, where none intrudes,
By the deep sea, and music in its roar;
I love not men the less, but nature more,
From these our interviews, in which I steal
From all I may be, or have been before
To mingle with the Universe, and feel
What I can ne'er express, yet can not all conceal.

Roll on, thou deep and dark blue
Ocean — roll!
Ten thousand fleets sweep over thee
in vain;
Man marks the earth with ruin — his control
Stops with the shore; upon the watery plain
The wrecks are all thy deed, nor doth remains
A shadow of man's ravage, save his own,
When for a moment, like a drop of rain,
He sinks into the depth, with bubbling grain,
Without a grave, unknelt, uncouth,
and unknown.

(Byron from "Child Harold's Pilgrimage").

Field Day At
E. M. Stoodley's Farm

An Agricultural Field Day was held at the farm of Mr and Mrs E. M. Stoodley on Tuesday, July 2nd. Mr Whitbread, District Agriculturalist, spoke on grain-growing, forage crops, and livestock. He also referred to the Government stock feeding Clubs and Junior Calf Clubs.

Mr Whitbread will be in the district again in the fall as there is a growing interest locally in both of the above propositions.

Mr Hargraves, Superintendent of the Provincial Horticultural Station at Brooks, gave a practical demonstration on budding fruit trees, together with much interesting information on the planting of windbreaks, and the care of strawberries and asparagus. Incidentally Mr Hargraves referred to the fruit plantation on Mr Stoodley's farm as being the best he had seen on any farm.

Mr Hargraves concluded his inter-

LETHBRIDGE ANNUAL FIELD DAY, JULY 19th

Every year the Experimental Station holds an extensive field day at which all aspects of work on the Station are made available for inspection. Unfortunately many of the farmers do not avail themselves of the privilege of attending this field day.

If a farmer stops to consider how much money and time are spent every year at Experimental Station in determining the best agricultural practice, in developing the most profitable varieties of grains, alfalfa, sugar beets, small fruits and vegetables, in building up the highest producing strains of dairy cattle and poultry, he will realize that he cannot afford to miss this day in the midst of agriculture at his best.

The Experimental Station presents the most comprehensive picture of agriculture that can be observed anywhere in Southern Alberta. Extensive cultural tests on dry land are being carried out. One plot of ground has had a crop of wheat grown on it every year since 1911. Nearby is a comparison of 12 years duration of ploughed and unploughed fallows.

Here also can be observed the effects of using different implements in leaving a trash cover, in conserving moisture and in checking soil drift. Photographs showing the effect of fertilizer, barnyard manure, green manure crops and different rates of seeding are also included in the dry land experiments.

The irrigation farmer will be interested in the most profitable type of rotation applicable to his farm. Here he can see both short and long rotations, such as including manure and those without, those utilizing commercial fertilizer and those not. He can also observe the effect of sweet clover, peas and oats in a rotation, the value of alfalfa in a rotation and the different means of controlling weeds under irrigated farming.

The interested live stock man will see the fine collection of horses being bred from the outstanding Verbrun station Chief Lact. A high producing herd of Holstein dairy cattle is milked twice a day on the farm and 300 ewes are picked up every day from the profitable Barred Rock poultry flocks. Honey bees industriously store honey in the up to date apiary of 85 hives. Acres of vegetable gardens and small fruit bushes together with larger fruit orchards demonstrate ways to keep the cost of living down on the farm.

Of interest to the ladies and other lovers of beauty will be the large flower gardens containing practically all varieties, the wide lawns and the various ornamental and shade trees. A visitor to the annual field day at the Lethbridge Experimental Station on July 19th of this year will find a staff of trained men very pleased to help him with his problems and to pass along to him as much as possible of the vast amount of knowledge which is being accumulated on this section of land.

This year our general field day will be held Friday July 19th. The program will begin at 10 a.m. Coffee, provided as usual for both noon and evening meals so bring your lunch and spend the day.

Line Elevators Work To Eliminate 5,000 Bushel Quota

In an effort to maintain a market for any wheat the farmer may wish to sell, representations were recently made at Ottawa by Line Elevator Companies, to have the Dominion Government provide for the holding of country purchases and remove the 5,000 bushel limitation on deliveries to the coast.

"For some time past the Line Elevator Companies have been concerned over the market outlook," said the statement. "The rapid and sudden change in the international situation due to the invasion of Norway, Belgium and Holland, followed by the declaration of War by Italy and collapse of European finance, coupled with the prospect of a large carryover of wheat in Canada made it obvious that the government would have to take temporary measures to protect the price structure until they could move the market to take care of the present situation and the marketing of the crop in the approaching season."
